

Teachers' Union Caught Influencing School Reopening COVID Guideline. GOP Rep Calls for CDC Director To Resign.

A powerful teachers union lobbied the CDC to change the school-reopening guidance that was released in February. Teachers' unions across the United States rallied to keep schools closed during the pandemic, ignoring a body of scientific evidence that said it's safe to teach students face-to-face.