

Congresswoman Stormed Senate Building, Arrested, and Released. Pro-Trumpers Still in Jail

written by GEG | July 21, 2021

Democrat Representative Joyce Beatty, head of the Congressional Black Caucus, along with a group of far-left protesters, marched into the Hart Senate Building last week chanting, “End the filibuster!” The breach at the Capitol last January was labeled an insurrection when pro-Trumpers protested. Police arrested her and then released her. Meanwhile, over 20 Trump supporters remain in isolation in a DC prison for walking into the US Capitol on Jan. 6. –GEG

UPDATE: Democrat Representative Hank Johnson was also arrested and released.

Democrat Rep. Joyce Beatty along with a group of far-left protesters stormed the Hart Senate Building on Thursday chanting, “End the filibuster!”

Congresswoman Beatty, who is the head of the Congressional Black Caucus, was arrested during the insurrection by Capitol Police. Police zip-tied her wrists and marched her off.

Rep. Beatty was out of confinement soon afterward. Yet, ironically, she complained about ‘the double-standard treatment’.

She did not have to worry about being held indefinitely without trial. She did not have to worry about losing her job or being doxxed in her community.
