

Antifa High School Teacher Admits Turning Students into Communist Revolutionaries

written by GEG | August 31, 2021

Project Veritas published an undercover video featuring Gabriel Gipe, a high school teacher in Sacramento who admitted being a member of Antifa and working to turn his students into leftist revolutionaries. He told the reporter he has “180 days to turn them [students] into revolutionaries.” When asked how he accomplishes this goal, he said, “Scare the fk out of them.” He motivates his students to join Antifa protests and activities by giving extra credit to those who attend. Gipe teaches government classes to advanced students at Inderkum High School in the Natomas Unified School District. Project Veritas will live stream the Natomas School Board meeting on Wednesday, September 1st, at this link:

- Gabriel Gipe, AP Government Teacher, Inderkum High School: “I have 180 days to turn them [students] into revolutionaries...Scare the f*ck out of them.”
- Gipe: “I’m probably as far left as you can go.”
- Gipe: “I post a calendar every week...I’ve had students show up for protests, community events, tabling, food distribution, all sorts of things...When they go, they take pictures, write up a reflection – that’s their extra credit.”
- Gipe: “So, they [students] take an ideology quiz and I put [the results] on the [classroom] wall. Every year, they get further and further left...I’m like, ‘These ideologies are considered extreme, right? Extreme times breed extreme ideologies.’ Right? There is a reason why Generation Z, these kids, are becoming further and further left.”

- Gipe: “I have an Antifa flag on my [classroom] wall and a student complained about that – he said it made him feel uncomfortable. Well, this [Antifa flag] is meant to make fascists feel uncomfortable, so if you feel uncomfortable, I don’t really know what to tell you. Maybe you shouldn’t be aligning with the values that this [Antifa flag] is antithetical to.”
- Gipe: “Like, why aren’t people just taking up arms? Like why can’t we, you know – take up arms against the state? We have historical examples of that happening, and them getting crushed and being martyrs for a cause and it’s like – okay well, it’s slow going because it takes a massive amount of organization.”
- Gipe: “I think that for [left-wing] movements in the United States, we need to be able to attack both [cultural and economic] fronts. Right? We need to create parallel structures of power because we cannot rely on the state...Consistently focusing on education and a change of cultural propaganda. We have to hit both fronts. We have to convince people that this is what we actually need.”
- Gipe: “There are three other teachers in my department that I did my credential program with – and they’re rad. They’re great people. They’re definitely on the same page.”
- Gipe: “Sacramento, as a city itself, is incredibly diverse. But we’re surrounded by a bunch of right-wing rednecks.”
