

Los Angeles: Antifa Member who Stabbed a Man in the Heart is Released from Prison on Bail

written by GEG | September 7, 2021

Eric Louis "Nina" Cohen, a transsexual Antifa activist who was charged with attempted murder in connection with the stabbing of a pro-medical freedom protester in Los Angeles last month was released on $60,000 bail, reduced from $1 million. Cohen is accused of stabbing a Hispanic man in the chest, lacerating his heart and puncturing his lung. The victim nearly died. Cohen's sister and mother say he is being misgendered and should be held in a women's facility. -GEG

Eric Louis "Nina" Cohen, an antifa activist who was charged with attempted murder in connection with the stabbing of a pro-medical freedom protester in Los Angeles last month, has been released on bail after having his charges downgraded.

Eric "Nina" Cohen, a transsexual antifa member, was arrested & charged w/attempted murder in connection w/the stabbing of a Latino man during a riot. Her sister Rebecca Marie Cohen & mother are speaking out in support of her & says Cohen was misgendered & should be kept w/women. pic.twitter.com/uUXIrqU9oL

– Andy Ngô 🇻🇪🇵 (@MrAndyNgo) September 6, 2021

Eric "Nina" Cohen is accused of stabbing a Hispanic man in the upper chest & lacerating his heart & puncturing his lung. The victim nearly died. Cohen was arrested previously at an antifa riot outside the Wi Spa. After the stabbing, she dyed her hair from blonde to dark purple. pic.twitter.com/Fokc5bvtig

– Andy Ngô 阮文 (MrAndyNgo) September 6, 2021

Read full article here...