

Haiti Gang Seeks $1-Million per Person for Kidnapped Missionaries

written by GEG | October 19, 2021

Five priests and two nuns were abducted in April, and were later released after a ransom was paid. Haitians mounted a nationwide strike to protest gang crime and kidnappings, which have been on the rise for years and have worsened since the July assassination of President Jovenel Moise