

In a Time of Government Oppression, Private Membership Associations Can Set You Free

written by GEG | October 31, 2021

Mike Colomb, rancher, entrepreneur, and organizer of Private Membership Associations (PMAs), says that your business can be set free from the jurisdiction of the overreaching government through a private structure that is not subject to the state, its rules and its taxation system.