

Victory: Florida School District Ends Mask Mandate After 8-Year-Old Girl Told Them They Should Be in Prison

written by GEG | November 15, 2021

Palm Beach County school district ended its mask mandate days after Fiona Lashells, an 8-year old second grade girl who was suspended 38 times for refusing to wear a mask in class, told school board officials they should all rot in jail for forcing children to wear face coverings against their will.
