

Vietnam: Three Children Reported Dead and More than 120 Hospitalized after Taking Pfizer Vaccine

written by GEG | December 8, 2021

The Vietnamese province of Thanh Hoa has suspended the use of a Pfizer Covid-19 vaccine batch after over 120 students were hospitalized following their inoculation. In addition, three children reportedly died from the vaccine in Bac Giang, Hanoi, and Binh Phuoc over the past week.