New Zealand: The High Court terminated Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern's vaccine mandate, and declared that it represented a 'gross violation of human rights' for New Zealanders. The landmark case means that the police and NZDF cannot be fired for refusing to take the experimental vaccine. This case will be used to overthrow all of Ardern's illegal mandates in New Zealand.

New Zealand High Court Ends Jacinda Ardern's Vaccine Mandate: "It's a Gross Violation of Human Rights"

"New Zealand Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern was left reeling on Friday after a High Court ruled that her vaccine mandate represented a 'gross violation of human rights' for New Zealanders.

The landmark case means that the police and NZDF cannot be fired for refusing to take the experimental vaccine. This case will be used to overthrow all of Ardern's illegal mandates in New Zealand.

Justice Francis Cooke ruled that ordering frontline police officers and Defence staff to be vaccinated or face losing their job was not a 'reasonably justified' breach of the Bill of Rights.
