

Majority of Voters Support Training and Arming Teachers, Young People Agree Most

written by GEG | June 6, 2022

57.5% of American voters believe that preventing properly trained school teachers and school staff from carrying a firearm makes schools more dangerous, compared to only 30.8% who believe that preventing trained teachers staff from carrying a gun makes schools less dangerous.