The mother of a 13-year-old student at Barack Obama Global Preparation Academy is filing a lawsuit against the Los Angeles Unified School District after she says her son was bribed with pizza and her signature was forged so he could take a COVID-19 vaccine without her consent. The boy reportedly suffers from asthma and a bleeding condition, which is why it was recommended that he decline COVID vaccines. His health conditions reportedly worsened after receiving the COVID vaccine. The woman who administered the shot asked the child not to say anything because she did not want to get in trouble. The family's attorney says they are filing a lawsuit after a damage claim was ignored by both the school and the district.

Maribel Duarte and her lawyer Nicole Pearson of Facts Law Truth Justice, LLP. announced the lawsuit during a press conference Wednesday outside LAUSD offices.

“He’s lacking of breath, doesn’t sleep well, he doesn’t do exercise the way he did. He is not normal to me,” said the boy’s mom.

She claims her son was offered a piece of pizza in exchange for a COVID shot and then allegedly coerced into forging his mom’s signature.

Immediately after getting the vaccine, Duarte said he started experiencing Symptoms.

The family’s attorney says they are filing a lawsuit after a damage claim was ignored by both the school and the district.
