

Minneapolis: Lawsuit Filed over Policy that Could Result in White Teachers Being Fired First

written by GEG | August 26, 2022

The policy states that when there are layoffs, “under-represented” teachers should be skipped over for someone who is not in the “under-represented” category, despite seniority. Judicial Watch says the policy violates the state constitution.