

Connecticut Public School Asst. Principal Admits Discrimination Against Catholic Candidates

written by GEG | September 5, 2022

Jeremy Boland, Assistant Principal of Cos Cob Elementary School, explaining how he discriminates against conservatives, Catholics and older teachers when he interviews them for employment as teachers at the school. He instead hires young progressive teachers to indoctrinate children with leftist ideology.