

CDC Data Revealed that 58% of People Who Recently Died from COVID Were Vaccinated

written by GEG | November 27, 2022

The author of the study said, “We can no longer say this is a pandemic of the unvaccinated.” The article neglected to point out that people were counted as unvaccinated until 2 weeks after they received the shot, when most injuries occur.