Frightening Poll Shows Half of Brits Support Tony Blair's Proposal for National Digital ID Cards

written by GEG | February 24, 2023

A poll of 4,000 Brits showed that they support a Digital ID program that can be implemented for totalitarian control. Tony Blair called for a digital ID that people can have on their phones that would hold details such as their passport, driving license, tax records, qualifications and right to work status.