

City in Washington Proposes Ban on Alcohol and Gun Sales in Coronavirus Emergency Plan Power Grab

written by GEG | March 23, 2020

The city council of Bellingham, Washington will vote on “emergency” measures of banning alcohol sales, banning gun sales and carry restrictions and closing public streets. Council members will meet from remote locations, allowing them to avoid facing unhappy citizens.