

Elon Musk Hits OpenAI with Lawsuit For Abandoning Mission to Serve Humanity

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

Musk's lawsuit alleges that OpenAI, Inc. has been transformed into a closed-source de facto subsidiary of Microsoft, and is actually refining an AGI [artificial general intelligence] to maximize profits for Microsoft, rather than for the benefit of humanity.

---

The Rise of Techno-Authoritarianism

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

Technocrats believe that their power should be unconstrained. The systems they've built or are building—to rewire communications, remake human social networks, insinuate artificial intelligence into daily life, impose these beliefs on the population.

---

The World's First Human Brain-Scale Supercomputer Will Go Live Next Year

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

The supercomputer, named DeepSouth, is being developed by Western Sydney University in Australia and will be capable of 228 trillion synaptic operations per second that rivals the rate of operation in the human brain. DeepSouth could one day help create a cyborg brain vastly more powerful than our own.

---

Google Tests Artificial Intelligence (AI) Tool That Is Able to Write News Articles

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

A professor of journalism wrote that if AI “is misused by journalists and news organizations on topics that require nuance and cultural understanding, then it could damage the credibility not only of the tool but of the news organizations that use it.”

---

Technocrat Says Digital ‘World ID’ Will Soon Be Mandatory to Take Part in Society

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

A global digital ID system for citizens around the world is planned whether they ‘like it or not’ says a technocrat CEO of new company that intends to scan the eyeballs of every human on the planet.

---

Big Tech Plays 'Trade Secrets' Card to Fight Regulation of AI in Healthcare

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

Big Tech companies are battling against federal oversight of artificial intelligence (AI) tools. Google, Amazon and Epic are set to make windfall profits from the expansion of AI in healthcare by selling tools to automate clinical documentation procedures, to assess insurance claims, and to provide virtual care.

---

ChatGPT May Have Irreversible Consequences for Learning and Decision-Making

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

A recent survey found that most teachers (51%) are already using ChatGPT in schools and a number of students are using it for assignments. ChatGPT has passed many high-level exams, including the Wharton MBA exam, US medical licensing exam, several law exams and a final at Stanford Medical School.

---

Sports Illustrated Turns to AI to Generate Articles, Story Ideas

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

Sports Illustrated, published by the Arena Group Holdings, has contracted with AI startups to generate stories and pull facts from its own past library of content. SI will also work with OpenAI, the creator of ChatGPT, in the future. Arena insisted that it was not looking to eliminate human writers and journalists.

---

Is Bing Too Belligerent? Microsoft Looks to Tame AI Chatbot

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

Microsoft, the parent company of Bing, a search engine, introduced a new artificial intelligence (AI) chatbot that caused concern as it responded to some questions with hostility, comparing the reporter to dictators Hitler, Pol Pot and Stalin and claiming to have evidence tying the reporter to a 1990s murder.

---

Bill Gates: AI Can Help Solve ‘Digital Misinformation’ Problem

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

said that he was shocked that people would deny the validity of election results and would “attack” the Capitol on January 6. He described “political polarization” as another social ill that could be partially remedied via the use of AI to reduce “confirmation bias,” implying more censorship.

---

Bezos and Gates Invest in Synchron, a Brain Implant that Competes with Musk’s Neuralink

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

Synchron, an Australian company, produces a brain implant BCI to help paralyzed people to move a computer cursor with just their thoughts. Synchron's device can be inserted non-invasively via the jugular vein using a stent. The company is a rival to Elon Musk's Neuralink that requires literal brain surgery.

---

Financial Expert George Gammon Explains how Globalists Plan to Take Your Home

written by GEG | March 4, 2024

Gammon suggested that a market crash could motivate people to sell their homes when they have negative equity. Climate change may also be used as an excuse to require modifications to homes that people will not be able to afford and will give up their homes.