

Obama Pentagon's Coverup of 'Bacha Bazi' Child Rape by Afghan Soldiers

written by GEG | November 28, 2017

Under Obama, the Pentagon attempted to block an independent report on child sex abuse and rape of young boys among Afghan soldiers and police. Despite 93 congressmen requesting this document in 2015, it is still classified by the Pentagon. "Bacha bazi", which is an Afghan custom of dressing young boys like women and making them dance and perform sex acts, is growing, and local officials do nothing about it.
