

Trump Introduces $500-Billion 'Platinum Plan' for the Black Community

written by GEG | October 2, 2020

The non-violent path to Communism is the legislative and government-funding path that creates Communism while calling it something else such as socialism or empowerment. Some people see this as Trump trying to buy the black vote. Others see it as betrayal of his supporters. Communism is the result either way.