

FISA Court Scandal: No Hearings on Trump/ Page Surveillance Warrants. Three of the Warrants Were Issued After Trump Won Presidency.

written by GEG | September 3, 2018

Judicial Watch discovered the FISA Court held no hearings on the surveillance warrant applications from the FBI that was based on Christopher Steele's 'dirty dossier'. Three of the warrants were executed after President Trump was elected. The fourth renewal of the warrant was signed under Mueller's reign, implicating him in using the fraudulent document.

When the FBI Used FISA to Spy on Carter Page as A Suspected Russian Agent, It Knew Better Because He Had Been an FBI Employee Targeting the Russians

written by GEG | September 3, 2018

Journalist Lee Stranahan reports that Carter Page, the subject of the FISA wiretap warrant, was an FBI employee from 2013 to 2016 who targeted the Russians prior to joining the Trump campaign. Therefore, when the FBI obtained the FISA warrant against Page, it was aware that he was not a Russian agent.
