

Heather MacDonald Explains How Biden & Democrats Criminal-Justice Schemes Would Cause Anarchy

written by GEG | November 23, 2020

The Biden criminal-justice plan would slap crippling cost of consent decrees on police without any evidence of civil rights violations, and would expand consent decrees to prosecutors' offices for prosecuting crime. Black Lives Matter, Kamala Harris, and Biden are silent on the topic of Black-on-Black homicide.

Supreme Court Rules in Favor of Baker Who Refused to Make a Gay Wedding Cake – But The Issue Still Is Not Settled

written by GEG | November 23, 2020

The court ruling was made on the basis of unequal treatment by the civil-rights commission, not on whether or not the state has the right to force someone to labor for another person if they choose not to do so. Based on the narrow wording of the court decision, it is likely that the next time there is a challenge of this kind, freedom-of-choice will not be defended.

G. Edward Griffin Explains How the Civil Rights Movement Was Used to Promote Goals of Communism

written by GEG | November 23, 2020

Lenin taught that a culturally unified nation is difficult to topple, so he fractured the culture and divided the people into antagonistic groups: opposing classes, races, religions, etc., culminating in hatred and violence. The Communist Party USA used this strategy during the rise of the civil rights movement, but not one person in a thousand had any idea who was directing the movement. They could not imagine that the cry for civil rights was being used, not to protect the civil rights of black Americans, but to exploit black Americans (and most white Americans as well) into supporting Communist totalitarianism.

The US Commission on Civil Rights Condemned Violence from The Alt Right But Not from The Antifa Left

written by GEG | November 23, 2020

The Commission refused to denounce Antifa and decided that violence is acceptable if the political views of the perpetrators are acceptable.
