

Florida: New Law Bans Critical Race Theory in Classrooms and the Workplace

written by GEG | April 25, 2022

Gov. DeSantis signed a bill banning critical race theory (CRT), the philosophy that race determines one's standing as either an oppressor or a victim, at both schools and such events as workplace training sessions. He stated, "We will not use your tax dollars to teach our kids to hate this country or hate each other."
