

GoFundMe Returns over $400,000 Scammed by New Jersey Grifters

written by GEG | December 26, 2018

Kate McClure, Mark D'Amico, and homeless veteran Johnny Bobbitt were charged with theft by deception after they concocted a story that Bobbitt had given McClure his last $20 after her car ran out of fuel, which left her stranded on the side of I-95 in a dangerous neighborhood.

Millions of Dollars Donated to GoFundMe Account to Pay for the Wall If Government Won't

written by GEG | December 26, 2018

Brian Kolfage, a veteran and recipient of a Purple Heart medal, who lost three limbs in combat, set up a GoFundMe page to fund the Wall on the southern US border. He raised millions in a matter of days and is sending a powerful message to Congress.

New Jersey Couple Raised $400,000 for Homeless Man on GoFundMe and Kept the Money

written by GEG | December 26, 2018

A GoFundMe campaign raised more than $400,000 in a homeless veteran's name, but he says he has not received the funds. The fundraising couple reportedly spent half the fortune and the remainder is still in the boyfriend's savings account instead of a trust for the veteran who is now living under a bridge.
