

Grooming 'Epidemic': Almost 19,000 Children Identified as Rape, Sexual Assault and Exploitation Victims in England

written by GEG | January 21, 2020

The Department of Education revealed that more than 18,700 suspected victims of child sexual exploitation were identified by local authorities in England in 2018-19, a major increase from 3,300 reported in 2013.