

Senate Passes the “Inflation Reduction Act of 2022” that Will Destroy the Middle Class

written by GEG | August 10, 2022

The spending bill allocates $80 billion to the IRS with plans to increase its staff with 87,000 new agents. A critic pointed out that the proposal will not reduce inflation, but will instead cause massive job loss and increase household electricity expenses by 23%.