

California Shoplifting Laws Could Wreck the Economy as Insurance Companies Exit the State

written by GEG | June 16, 2023

State Farm and Allstate are exiting California's business and property insurance markets. Thousands of Californians are now going without insurance, which locks people in as they can't sell their house as most banks will not write a mortgage for an uninsurable property. Many businesses will fail without insurance.

Top Insurance Analyst Finds 7% Increase In Mortality for Each Covid Vax Dose Received

written by GEG | June 16, 2023

Josh Stirling found a 7% aggregate mortality increase for each COVID vaccine dose received, meaning a “fully vaccinated” individual who took 5 doses increased their risk of [premature] death by 35%. Stirling previously noted that overall, all-cause mortality in the US rose in 2022 from 2021 by about 15%.

5th Circuit Court of Appeals Says Obamacare Individual Mandate Is Unconstitutional and Sent The Case Back to Lower Court to Decide If The Rest of It Also Is Unconstitutional

written by GEG | June 16, 2023

OBAMACARE

Death Panels

Fewer Doctors

Health Care Rationing

Increased Costs

16,500 More IRS Agents

You're Welcome

The fine print in the policies may look and read like insurance, but the reality is that they are a scheme to promise and tax until the system breaks, leaving only the political and financial elite with real health care. The rest will suffer and die prematurely and, in the meantime, live in poverty and slavery.

Every Democrat on Stage at the Second Night of Debates Says Illegal Aliens Should Get Health Insurance. The $32 Trillion Cost for 'Medicare for All' Is Wildly Underestimated – Before Adding 11 Million Migrants.

written by GEG | June 16, 2023

Bernie Sanders' 'Medicare for All' plan is based on current Medicare rates, and the pay cuts would force hospitals to close, or the estimate will go way up, by perhaps 50 or 100%.

Justice Department Endorses Federal Court Move to Eliminate Obamacare in Its Entirety

written by GEG | June 16, 2023

Trump's Justice Department endorsed eliminating Obamacare in its entirety, instead of just the individual mandate that penalized people who refuse coverage. Critics say it gives Democrats the advantage in the next election, because a large segment of the population wants Obamacare so long as someone else pays for it.

US Will Dump $700-Billion into Obamacare Subsidies in 2018

written by GEG | June 16, 2023

The US Congressional Budget Office estimates that it will spend $700-billion on subsidies this year to help pay the health-care premiums for Americans under the age of 65. The extravagant benefits of the government's so-called 'affordable health care' has forced insurers to raise premiums by 34% in 2018.

Did Trump's Tax Cut Bill Repeal Obamacare?

written by GEG | June 16, 2023

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act repealed the individual mandate portion of the Affordable Care Act that requires people who reject the insurance to pay a penalty of $695 or 2.5% of their income. However, Obamacare is still in effect and requires employers with businesses with 50 or more full-time employees to pay for their full-time employees health insurance, regardless of the cost. This is forcing many employers to reduce the number of full-time employees or go out of business altogether.

The Good, the Bad and the Ugly: Summary of the New Healthcare Bill

written by GEG | June 16, 2023

This summary of the bill in bullet points shows that it is not a repeal of Obamacare, but instead tinkers with the definitions – business as usual in Washington, DC.

Highlights of Republicans' Replacement for Obamacare

written by GEG | June 16, 2023

Republicans have unveiled their replacement for Obamacare. It will cover fewer people but, unlike Obamacare, it will not force people to buy coverage if they don't want to.

This article lists items that would be removed from Obamacare and those that would be added, such as a penalty if people fail to keep themselves continuously covered. Also, insurers will be allowed to charge a higher amount for older customers than for young adults. This is the same as charging older people a higher rate for life insurance or charging drivers with bad driving records a higher premium for collision insurance. In other words, the cost is higher for those most likely to benefit, which is a necessary feature of insurance if it is to function without tax subsidies.