

If John Sullivan, the Agitator at the Capitol, Is Not BLM/ Antifa, Who Does He Work For?

written by GEG | January 15, 2021

John Sullivan, the man who has a history of inciting violence and who was seen urging demonstrators to violence inside the Capitol, appears to have been denounced by Black Lives Matter, leading critics to wonder if the denunciation is a public-relations gesture or if he is working for a government agency.

---

Analysis of Ashli Babbitt Shooting Videos Suggests Coordinated Actions by Leftists

written by GEG | January 15, 2021

John Sullivan, the founder of InsurgenceUSA, who is affiliated with Black Lives Matter and held an anti-Trump rally just before the the event at the Capitol, was at the scene when Ashli Babbitt was shot. He shouted that she was dead, and the analyst said it was to perhaps cause a violent reaction by Trump supporters.

---

BLM Man Who Filmed Ashli Babbitt Inside Capitol Organized Leftist Protest Near the Building Before It Was Stormed

written by GEG | January 15, 2021

A flyer from InsurgenceUSA promoted a meeting on January 6th in Washington DC to “Dump Trump for Good.” Sullivan tweeted, under the pseudonym Jayden X, that Trump supporters were targeting BLM supporters’ buses and were trying get pictures and addresses of where the leftist group would be staying on the 6th.