

George Soros Is Funding Elections of Leftist Local District Attorneys Across the US

Portsmouth, Virginia: George Soros covertly funded another leftist district attorney in his bid to control the US justice system. He has routinely backed Marxist candidates with massive donations typically seen only in gubernatorial, congressional, or presidential campaigns. Soros spent more than $9-million on local DA races in 2015-2017 alone, allowing him to influence local criminal justice policies across the country. -GEG

George Soros helped tip another district attorney's race with more than $100,000 in support of his preferred candidate – and he did it without anybody finding out until after the campaign.

A Soros-funded national political action committee (PAC), Justice & Public Safety, spent more than $100,000 on behalf of Portsmouth, Virginia Commonwealth Attorney Stephanie Morales between Sept. 9 and Nov. 4, the PAC's FEC filings reveal. Soros's support for Morales's campaign has not been previously reported.

Soros has repeatedly backed left-wing district attorney candidates with massive donations typically only seen in gubernatorial, congressional or presidential campaigns. Soros spent more than $9 million on local DA races in 2015-2017 alone, allowing the New York resident to influence local criminal justice policies all across the country. (RELATED: George Soros Still Quietly Buying District Attorneys' Seats)

Justice & Public Safety PAC's spending on behalf of Morales (known as "in-kind" contributions) included more than $82,000 on polling, media advertisements and direct mail leaflets in the crucial last two weeks of the campaign. The PAC did not return The Daily Caller's request for comment.

Soros's financial backing of Morales gave her an enormous fundraising edge over her challenger, Portsmouth attorney T.J. Wright. The $106,000 Soros spent on Morales's behalf single-handedly more than doubled all contributions to Wright's campaign, according to Wright's campaign filings.

Read full article here...