

Nearly 40 States Require Face Masks. But Is It Constitutional?

written by GEG | July 17, 2020

Louisiana AG Jeff Landry issued an opinion against the mask order because the governor has no power to turn an executive order into a law that applies to citizens. Landry said that if police that try to enforce the mandate, under color of law, they could face liability if individual civil rights are violated.