

Mayor of Mexican Town Assassinated During His First Day in Office

written by GEG | January 7, 2019

Tlaxiaco, Oaxaca, Mexico: Alejandro Aparicio Santiago, a member of Mexican President AMLO's National Regeneration Movement, had just taken office in the town of Tlaxiaco when he was gunned down. Local politicians are often targeted because they crack down on corruption and local crime or because they favor a certain cartel and are killed by its rivals. 175 politicians were murdered between September 2017 and August 2018. -GEG

Mexico is no stranger to the assassinations of elected officials and candidates for office. And on Tuesday, the latest act of political violence to rock the nation occurred in a town in the southern state of Oaxaca, when the newly sworn in mayor was murdered by a group of gunmen while on his way to his first official meeting.

Alejandro Aparicio Santiago, a member of AMLO's National Regeneration Movement, had only just taken office in the town of Tlaxiaco when he was gunned down, according to the New York Post.

Holding elected office in Mexico is a perilous task. According to one figure, 175 politicians were murdered between September 2017 and August 2018. Aparicio Santiago wasn't the only NRM member to be murdered over the past week: On Sunday, María Ascención Torres Cruz was murdered in the state of Morelos.

Mexico Declares War On The US

written by GEG | January 7, 2019

Mexican President Pena Nieto cancelled his meeting with President Trump after Trump tweeted that there was no point in having the meeting unless Nieto was ready to talk about funding the border wall. Then Nieto made statements that, in more sane times, would be considered as a declaration of war. He said that Mexico would use its consulates in every US state to help illegal immigrants get taxpayer-funded benefits and to protect them while they reject assimilation into America, which amounts to an invasion by a foreign country. The Mexican President is supporting the globalist agenda of breaking down the US to the point where it cannot survive without UN permission and control.
