

Moroccan Muslims Rioted in Brussels, Stores Looted, □Police Did Nothing

written by GEG | November 20, 2017

Hundreds of Moroccan Muslims flooded the streets of Brussels, breaking windows, looting, and starting fires. The press says this was in response to the news that Morocco had qualified for the World Cup in soccer. [The media would have us believe that, if Morocco had failed to qualify, the rioters would have been peaceful. Absurd! These people came to riot, and it had nothing to do with soccer.] Local police stood by watching and did not make any arrests.
