

Depopulation Alert: New York AG Sues Giant Meat Producer for Climate Impact in Attack on Food Supply

written by GEG | March 1, 2024

Jones said that if the globalists can take down JBS, the largest meat producer in the world, they will be able to take down anybody they target. The plan is to force businesses and populations to leave New York and then move to the next area and destroy it. Jones said that this is a global depopulation agenda.
