

Iran Suffers Drone Strike Days After US and Israel Launched Joint Military Drill in Region

written by GEG | January 30, 2023

No country has claimed responsibility for the attack and appears to be unprovoked. An analyst said that the Biden administration wants Tehran to understand that the United States has both the military means and the political will to stand with Israel and conduct successful large-scale strikes if necessary.