

Judge Allows NYPD Cop who Refused COVID Vaccine to Stay on Job, NY City Must Explain Its Actions

written by GEG | September 16, 2022

NY City denied the request for religious exemption from Deletto, who is Catholic, and later shot down his appeal with only “does not meet criteria” given as an explanation. The judge granted a temporary restraining order, allowing the father of five to stay on the force pending her decision.