InfoWars Reporter Files Charges Against Armed Antifa Agents Who Blocked Him from Protest

written by GEG | November 9, 2023

InfoWars reporter, Owen Shroyer, filed a police report against Antifa masked members with guns who blocked him from attending a protest. He intends to press charges against Antifa for preventing his free speech, preventing his right to assemble, brandishing firearms, illegal detention, and intimidation with firearms. He also hopes to file a civil-rights charge with federal officials. His video shows that the Austin Police Department was on the scene but did nothing to help him.

Paris Police Chief Bans March Against Islamic Terror and Immigration

written by GEG | November 9, 2023

Paris: Authorities cancelled a long-approved march opposing the spread of radical Islam across Europe. The event was canceled only hours before it was due to commence. The excuse was that police could not guarantee order in the face of counter-protestors. The cancellation sets a dangerous precedent for using the threat of violence as an excuse to ban non-violent protests.
