

James Comey Was Paid $36 Million in 2009! Author Explains How Comey and Robert Mueller Used Their Government Positions to Acquire Personal Wealth

written by GEG | August 27, 2018

James Comey used his position with the FBI to get a job as general counsel with Lockheed Martin, America's largest military contractor, and then collected $6.1 million in a single year in 2009. He also was given at least 160,000 shares of stocks plus stock options, which are worth $30-million.