

Bill Banning Chemtrails Passes Tennessee Senate

written by GEG | March 27, 2024

The mainstream media is ridiculing the proposed ban as a 'conspiracy theory', but a poll of 1,000 people found that about 10% of Americans believed in chemtrails "completely," while upwards of 30% of Americans at least found it "somewhat" true

Congress Is Funding the Spraying of Particles into the Sky Allegedly to Cool the Earth

written by GEG | March 27, 2024

The reality of the global-warming threat is never challenged. Authorities are talking about funding future spraying projects with no suggestion that past and present spraying projects have been underway for many years which must have been funded more or less under the table.
