

The Miraculous Nature of Water

written by GEG | December 24, 2023

Dr. Bruce Lipton discovered that our genes switch on or off based on their environment. When we are feeling positive emotions, our cells will be switched into self-healing and will thrive. When there are negative emotions, the process of self-healing will stop in order to begin the process of self-defense instead.