

Katie Hill Becomes the First Female Member of Congress to Quit Over a Sex Scandal

written by GEG | October 30, 2019

he announced that she would leave her office in the wake of a House Ethics Committee investigation into her alleged participation in sexual relationships with her male legislative director and her female campaign staffer.